East High School has been an important fork in the path of life along which we all travel. Many have gone before, reaping the same benefits and enjoying the same activities, and many will follow after, but none will have quite the same memories which we now take with us. To Footsteps — those of the Past, the sturdy foundation blocks which shaped traditions we hold dear in memories; those of the Present, adding to the Past and building for the Future; and those steps yet to come — we reverently dedicate the Eastonia of 1959-1960.

1968

Dear Randy,

I have enjoyed knowing you in foods this year! (really!) You are such a good comrade (in more ways than one!) Lotsa luck.

Love,

Annette Whitney

Footprints of Administration

As we enthusiastically march forward toward triumph throughout the year, the administration stands solidly behind us, consoling in defeat, championing in victory. They are constantly proving their loyalty to East High by the efficiency and competence they employ to keep our school life harmonious. These people truly have the wisdom to resolve and the patience to perform.

Dear East Sider,

The success of our school this year has been due to your desire to achieve our objectives. You have done your part and have developed intellectually and socially. I hope each one of you will continue to be successful and happy. You will if you keep doing what you know is right.

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Richards
Principal

Mr. Joseph W. Richards

To Mr. Richards, being principal is not only a job, but an exciting adventure in which he shares the triumphs and disappointments of our school. He is not just a man in a swivel chair but an Ecider who knows what it is to earn an "A." Because he knows us so well he is capable of leading us, the future, on the road of East's tradition.

Elva Cotterell, Vice Principal

A smile can mean many things. When Miss Cotterell smiles it means that you are someone special to her because she is working to make school just right for you. So the next time you see Miss Cotterell, give her a smile of appreciation.

Vadal Peterson, Vice Principal

What are the seven wonders of East? There may be many different answers, but Mr. Peterson is sure to be one of them, because his hard work and enthusiasm to make East great will not be forgotten.

Dewey Hale, Counselor

Jovial Mr. Hale is our Santa Claus of the office. By giving red and white packages of kindness and help he has won the friendship of every Ecider.

Auguste Utermann, Counselor

Miss Utermann gives the spirit of a little red schoolhouse to East because of her kind concern over the individual problems of the students. Through the year everyone has come to know her and she is the type of person not easily forgotten.

Pat Smith, Vice President

Here's the little red spark that lights our school with new ideas, new spirit, and the warmth of tiger-lilies that she gives each of us as she makes the footprints of Pat Smith, V.P., in our halls.

Jean Lund, Secretary

Faded blue jeans with bare feet make dainty footprints of sweetness and smiles across the pages of East High's memories where Jean Lund, our secretary has passed.

Student Body Officers

Gayle Muhlstein, Historian

A smile as warm as cocoa and marshmallows marks Gayle Muhlstein, the cut 'n paste girl who in turn has marked 1960's history with her own gentle enthusiasm.

Leonard Black, Business Manager

What's that big black smudge? You guessed, it's Leonard's footprint right where everyone can see it, just as no one can overlook the fine job he has done as Business Manager this year.

Bill Loyd, President

This year could not have been what it was without Bill Loyd to lead and represent East. In spite of his quiet modesty, no one has failed to notice his hard work and smiling blue eyes which silently reflect spirit, loyalty and achievement.

Footprints of Classes

A late flurry of urgent steps towards first period . . . the tread of students bursting with optimism on report card day . . . steady cadence . . . the Pep Club . . . the lingering reluctant step of parting friends . . . All are deeply integrated in our memories. These symbolic sounds are constant reminders of our heritage as we go fleetingly through these years of class — the stairways to our future through extended knowledge and mature goals.

Jim Backman, President

Jim is a loyal leader admired by all Sophomores; for he insists that Sophs sit in the balcony because people of such high social status should be in high positions.

Shirley Frobes, Secretary

The first year Eciders made 1960 tops with an efficient secretary, Shirley Frobes, whose bubbling personality could be detected in all sophomore brews for fun.

Stan Owen, Vice President

Stan proves that height isn't always measured in inches. In his case it is measured by his friends and achievement. No wonder he is the tallest Soph of all.

Always on the go, whether on the track or in the classroom, Kent Michie, President, is number one for activity but never too busy to give you a warm smile and greeting.

Craig Jensen, Vice President

A gentle smile, a quiet manner, a record of efficiency, and three hundred Junior friends made Craig Jensen a perfect V.P. for the middleclassmen.

Dear Randy,

It's been really a lot of fun getting to know you this year & last & esp. through Marsha Hersey. I really have enjoyed your friendship in Physiology this year.

I want to wish you the best of everything that a talented girl like you can have. I certainly hope you got the most out of your life.

Best wishes,
Gail Fairbanks

Autographs

Dear Randy:

It's been a panic in English this year. Remember when you handed in that real sloppy paper? She never did say anything about it, darn it.

You're a sweet girl with loads of personality.

Be good this summer and see you next year.

Always a friend,
Linda Layton

DEAR LOUISIANA
 I HAVE HAD A LOT OF FUN THIS YEAR IN HISTORY.
 HAVE FUN THIS SUMMER &
 SEE YOU NEXT YEAR.
 LOTS OF LUCK
 DIANE WADE

Organizations

The precision drilling of the R.O.T.C. . . . Key Clubbers climbing over excited spectators to peddle programs . . .
the toe-tapping of the Dance Band . . .

Dance Club practicing rhythm and graceful gamboling . . .

All these are indicative of the excellent and character-building exemplified in our Organizations —
Stepping stones to mature leadership.

Activities

Following an Ecider's footprints would have taken you many exciting places this year — a crisp red and white homecoming — an oriental E.H.A.G. tea — a dance in starlight — a Candy Carousel — exciting games — a Roman banquet — the work, the play — all to be remembered.

Honor

Footprints on the road to success belong to those who have won special recognition for themselves and our school. Outstanding scholars, athletes, debaters — all have done their part to keep East ahead now, and in the future.

Lagoon Day

The Shuffling of feet on a crowded dance floor . . . the crunching of cleats on a frosty football field . . . the lonely sound of tapping feet echoing in a deserted hall . . . the solemn steps of the graduation march . . . all of these leaving their footprints imprinted on the pages of the 1960 Eastonia. We, the editors, wish to thank the student body of East High for allowing us to paint the picture of this year's footprints in the memory of Eastciders.

P. S.

I HOPE MY UNC DOESN'T GIVE YOU TOO HARD A TIME.

Dear Louis Ann,

We have sure had fun this year in English together. It was all my pleasure to lend you answers for English. I hope when you think of "The Great White Mother's" class that you will think of me.

Best of luck,

Fancy Eldridge

Dear Stupid,

of all things! I. O. really can be a problem. My, but won't we have fun at our cabin next week. Why don't we detour by way of Los Vegas and see the sights. Maybe we can even see a show at the Sands. Too bad we aren't it isn't it?

I'm going to miss lunch this summer. Our daily gossip and my two lunches were all that kept me going. I have never heard of anyone girl with so many boy problems. Joe was always coming up with some funnies. Don't you ever learn. Please don't ever lend your car to anyone anymore. It always worries me and I'm way too young for ulcers.

you really must learn to control the volume of your voice. Like the day you piped up loud and clear with, "Does your mother care if you smoke, Deon?"

DANDY

AND CHARACTER IN THE DUM
CLASS HAS MADE IT A WEEK

DAVE ALLEN

Are we going to do something this summer? I don't care what the circumstances are, I've got lots of girl friends with a special he.

you and Cliff ought to get together. You both have a phobia for cars. I thinking once again, how ever, I kind of like them, anyway. you aren't interested in any new boys so what's the worry.

Funny how much we know about each other.
We have no classes together and do you realize that we've never gone anywhere together? I guess a lot can be said in a ~~half~~ hour lunch period.
Of course we usually had one that lasted an extra five minutes because I had to go to my locker. I never did get it through my thick skull that it would have been a hell of a lot easier to take my ~~book~~ books with me.

Another year to go and then — freedom and hard work. For me at least.

The best of luck and happiness. It's been real.

Love,
Dee

Randy,

I hope you won't mind the mess I will make but you see I haven't been writing in such a long time.

We have been real friends this past year. In part ~~the~~ playing with Miss Warner and lovely Mr. Clauson.
How did it go after I left. I'll bet things came easier in here.

Had better ~~long~~ cops! hurry.

to a good pal.

Always Diane.
